The Mayflower Stamps

Mayflower

THIS is an upper view of our Twenty-Stamp Mill, showing the ore bins in the rear. These stamps can handle 80 tons of ore per day, and allowing 300 working days in the year, this means an annual output of 24,000 tons per annum. The general run of ore from the "Mayflower" has netted about $10 per ton and in no place has the mine been worked to a depth of 800 feet.

In all the great mines around us values substantially increase with depth. There is not one known exception in our district to this inflexible rule. The "Empire", for instance, has an annual output approximating $1,000,000 and is now down to the 3500-foot level, and making preparations to go much lower. The "Idaho Maryland," a short distance west of us, is taking out richer quartz than ever from its lower levels today, and the "North Star" has just paid a December dividend of $187,500 (quarterly) and in addition has added $300,000 cash to its reserve fund. And all this from ore that has to be taken from levels nearly a mile down in the bowels of the earth.

IF VALUES on our property did not increase with depth the same as our royal neighbors, it would simply be an unprecedented freak of nature. But we will assume that the values from the lower levels are exactly the same as the past average production, or only $10 net per ton. On an annual output of 24,000 tons as before mentioned, this would give us $240,000 profit per annum, or 20% on the par value of our entire capital, or 80% a year to the man who secures his stock today at 25 cents per share. How does 80% strike you as a minimum investment return? If you know of a better buy, put me next. I will tell you this is your "OPPORTUNITY" for a safe, sound, high-paying investment. Pass your plate. Do not delay any longer. Get your share while opportunity extends the Golden Hand.

"Twill be passing strange" if "Mayflower" does not crowd to the limit the best and richest mines that California ever had the right to boast of. I have a special proposition to make you if you will come in this week and see me. Better look into it. BUY "MAYFLOWER" STOCK. BUY IT NOW!

Big Winnings on Two-Year-Old Frank Hogan

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—Henderson & Lokan, the Louisville horsemen, walked the local ring to a pretty brown today when their smart colt, Frank G. Hogan, romped down in front an easy winner in the two-year-old event. Still his rushed his mount into a commanding early lead, winning with something to spare from Virgil Cassa, the odds-on favorite. Then Frank, the Baldwin representative, was third. Those close to Henderson & Hogan claim that $25,000 is a conservative estimate of their winnings on the colt. The victory also had another phase to it, inasmuch as it marked the fifth victory for Shilling out of the six two-year-old events thus far decided. The slogan now heard whenever the baby racers parade is "what does Shilling ride?"

Jockey Bullman, after a long absence from the saddle, made his appearance in the second race today, astride Bonithilla, a 50-1 shot.

Nat Goodwin and his bride, formerly Miss Edna Goodrich, occupied a box. Nat is said to have won $2200 on Frank G. Hogan.

NAVY ATHLETES FORM PERMANENT ASSOCIATION

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 5.—The officers and crew of the battleship Mississippi, now at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, are forming a permanent athletic association for the purpose of promoting athletics in all branches. The Mississippi has been one of the leading ships in the Navy in athletics, and boasts the championship basketball team. Her football eleven was defeated last season only by the Idaho team, the only naval eleven that made the Mississippi team hustle. Her basketball team won the big cup-of-war match recently held under the auspices of the Military Athletic Association. Work of formulating the organization was carried out by Ensign Decker, Midshipman Boyd, and Chief Master-at-Arms P. J. Clark. Ensign Decker was elected president, and Clark vice president. Gunnery's Mate A. L. Watson was chosen treasurer and Yeoman Tuttle secretary. The executive committee consists of Midshipman Boyd, Bowdoin's Mate Cairnes, Quartermaster Eagle, Gunnery's Mate Cadey, Coxswain Myers, Seaman Labbele, Machinist's Mate Bhaton and Officers Jefferson and McLeod.

President Will Try And Take 'Em Alive

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.—On the forthcoming African trip the President will try to capture a few of 'em alive and crate 'em home to the Washington Zoo. He has made no specific promise to this effect, but inquiry has been made at the zoo from the White House as to what African animals are lacking, and Head Keeper Blackburn is wagging his head and speaking mysteriously about prospective additions to his zoological collection.

None of the highly prized and almost extinct animals from the dark continent is at the zoo, although the collection of the better known animals is excellent.

Two African animals which Dr. Frank Baker, the superintendent, is desirous of adding to the collection are the oryx, a South African antelope, and the kudu, another species of antelope. The oryx has the mane and tail of a horse and the legs and feet of an antelope. Its horns are about three feet in length and it is very fleet of foot.

The kudu is the smallest variety of antelope known. It is only a foot high at the shoulder and is so timid that it is almost impossible for hunters to get close enough to kill one.

For several years Head Keeper Blackburn also has been especially anxious to obtain a kudu, the "proboscis monkey." This ape is about three feet high and is regarded as one of the rarest of the monkey family. It is remarkable for its great length of nose, from which it derives its name. While the ape is a native of Borneo, a number have been shipped from Africa recently.

A list of these animals will be furnished to the President before he departs, and as the equipment will include material for capturing big game the future may see installed in the zoo here a Roosevelt annex.

MAYOR CHAMPION SHOT

Jeffries Begins Light Work At Home

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 6.—Big Jim Jeffries disappointed the curious element of the local sporting world, who expected to see the retired champion don his training togs in the gymnasium of a Spring street athletic club today. The champion made good on his declaration that he intended to start light training, but he indulged in his morning work out in the back yard of his home on Cypress avenue.

"It would have taken the whole police force to keep the crowd away if I had started work downtown," said Jeff tonight. "Every Tom, Dick and Harry would have been butting in to see what I weighed, and there would have been various other annoyances. For this reason I have fixed up a little gymnasium of my own at my residence."

"I have a punching bag up in position, but I will do more dumbbell and rope-skipping work than anything else, as I want to get my wind in condition to play the San Francisco theatrical engagement. By the way, the contract from the Wigwam people did not arrive today, as I had been advised it would. It's possibly on the way. I did my road work this afternoon by crowding my way through the betting ring at Santa Anita several times. If you don't believe that's work, try it once."

That Jeff is taking himself and his work seriously was shown by the fact that he cut down his daily allowance of tobacco today. When it comes to drinking with his patrons, Jim is playing the mineral water off his own bar. The bright sparkle in Jeffries' eyes denotes the perfect health that is only awaiting a chance to assert itself. The big fellows' friends are commencing to believe that several months' training would put him in fair condition to tackle Jack Johnson. In this connection Jeffries still shouts "No!" but keeps his fingers out of sight.

EDWARDS KNOCKS OUT BELL

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 8.—The scheduled 20-round bout between Kid Bell and Frankie Edwards at Point Richmond last night lasted only four rounds, when Bell was knocked out. Edwards, who had all the better of the go from the start, had little difficulty in putting Bell out. Jack Welch refereed and a large crowd was present. Bell is a protégé of Sam Langford, who was at the ringside.

Names of new players for Seals may soon be disclosed.

Race-goers are angered by disqualification of Clondlight.

PACKY McFARLAND AND YOUNG OTTO MAY FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 6.—Packy McFarland will give young Otto a battle. Otto has posted $1000 with the sporting editor of the New York Journal in support of a challenge to McFarland. Otto stated that Packy could have all the gate receipts if he would only consent to fight.

Harry Gilmore, McFarland's manager, comes back as follows:

"We will give this fellow all the action he wants. If Otto is willing to allow this $1000 to go as a side bet, then say for me that the match is on. We will make the terms most reasonable for him. Otto can make the weight at 133 at 3 o'clock. We will take him on before any club offering us a percentage basis and we will divide the boxer's share of the money 75 per cent. to the winner and 25 per cent. to the loser."

Bakersfield, Calif., Jan. 5.—Manager Ezra Rehfeld of the Empire Athletic Club tonight matched Battling Johnson, the Russian heavyweight, to meet Jack Burns of Goldfield in this city for twenty rounds on January 21.

Sam Berger May Spar With Jeffries

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 7.—Jim Jeffries is the biggest man in the sporting world today. The retired champion has received an enormous amount of world-wide advertising since the Sydney battle between Jack Johnson and Tommy Burns. As a result he finds himself constantly in demand on all sides, and the usual peace and quiet of the self-satisfied big boy is being seriously disturbed.

With stoic good grace he is holding the fort at his Spring street resort. His heavy deluge of mail and telegrams is being looked after by his business partner, Jack Klipper. Jim's greatest difficulty is in dodging ambitious persons who want to become his manager or have other propositions of a similar nature to make. A half-dozen of those individuals who thought they had only to ask and they would receive are now wondering at their own temerity.

The writer has received an invitation to visit Jeffries at his home during one of Jim's morning workouts.

"You won't see much," said Jeff, "because I am in no condition. I am simply working to get my wind in shape so that I can fill my theatrical engagement a month; that's all."

The San Francisco theatrical magnates are going to take no chances at losing Jeffries.

ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE IN NEW ORLEANS FOR RACING

New Orleans, La., Jan. 5.—Probably a thousand people assembled tonight, meeting to condemn the Locke law which prohibits race meetings with bookmaking.

Notwithstanding that Ed Corrigan today condemned half-mile races, no emphatic protest was made in the resolutions adopted at the meeting tonight. Resolutions declaring that summary laws had seriously injured the business of the city and urging the restoration of racing under proper regulations were adopted unanimously. Incidentally, a resolution was adopted voicing protests against prohibition.

The talks were conservative, and their burden was that the city should not be divested of all its amusement features at the sacrifice of its economic welfare.

LEWIS TOO FAST FOR MANSFIELD

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 5.—Harry Lewis, the welterweight who claims championship in that class, defeated Harry Mansfield in a fast bout here tonight. Mansfield, though outpointed, was strong and willing at the end of the sixth round.

WELL, HERE'S AN ACTOR WITH THE BIG RACE TALK

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 5.—Victor Moore, the actor who won $10,000 on Elm and Elm in St. Louis last week, is determined to own a racing stable. He has asked Herman Brand, who is handling the great colt Chapultepec, to put a price on the racer. He got into communication with Brand at the Santa Anita track at Los Angeles by wire yesterday and expects an answer any minute.

Chapultepec is to form the nucleus of the proposed Moore stable.

The comedian of "The Talk of New York" does not think that racing is altogether dead in the Empire State, and believes that Governor Hughes will eventually recede from his position in opposing racetracks.

It is Moore's intention to have one of the strongest racing stables in the
